SYMPATHY FOR BOERS.

This and a Speech by Coler on ! Municipal Institutions the Principal Features.

About 360 guests sat down at the fortytimee tables at the annual dinner of the St. Nicholas Society, at Delmonico's, last night. It was a jolly crowd, and what the banquet lacked in speakers of national reputation, it made up in mirthfulness and

It was a few minutes after 8 o'clock when a trumpeter, dressed in a blue and yellow uniform of the fifteenth century, sounded the "mess call." Then he marched ahead, followed by eight colored attendants in Hollandaise costumes of blue and yellow fackets, black and velvet knickerbockers, and black slippers with silver buckles. The diners filed in behind to the large dining room, which was festooned with yellow
